Alto tunnel

Exclusively brought to Living Fire by Paul Agnew Designs.

The Alto Tunnel is a one of a kind design, encapsulating a 1.6m high glass panel, this fireplace is a unique product in the Australian market.

With modest, clean lines and a see-through design, this stunning unit can be incorporated as the most unique window in your home, turning heads from every angle.

A majestic flame encased between two pieces of glass, the Alto Tunnel is more than just a fireplace with the capability of emitting heat from both sides, this captivating gas fire is perfect for a multitude of design environments.
