Vue peninsula

Exclusively brought to Living Fire by Paul Agnew Designs.

The Vue Peninsula creates a dynamic and contemporary design focus point in any large open plan living space.

Cantilevered off a wall, this three-sided glass gas log fire can be installed to allow its visual enchantment to be enjoyed from all angles, and even be utilised as the perfect room divider.

The Peninsula uses the latest in balanced flue technology, making it possible for both vertical and horizontal configurations, allowing for a multitude of installation options.

With full remote access control, electronic ignitions, modulating burners and programmable timers, the Vue Peninsula is an architect's dream.
